

POSITION DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE: High School Mathematics Teacher DATE: FY2022-2023 (Spring Semester)

DEPARTMENT: Math Department

REPORTS TO: Math Department Chair, Dean of Academics, Assistant Head for Academic Affairs, Headmaster, and Headmaster's Executive Secretary

JOB SUMMARY:

St. Johnsbury Academy seeks a dynamic and experienced, 4 years minimum, teacher for all levels of Math from Basic Algebra thru AP Calculus to join our Math Department January 1, 2023. Responsibilities with a full-time position include teaching three to four sections each semester. Success in this position requires the ability to assess where a student is and then determine how hard they can be pushed. The successful candidate must be familiar with the use of manipulatives, written reflection, and technology in the secondary math classroom. Experience with backwards design and creating standards-based lessons is required. Teachers in this department collaborate frequently on syllabus design, course resources, as well as assessments and assignments. Success in this position requires the ability to engage, teach, assess, and mentor students to their fullest potential.

In addition to teaching responsibilities, full-time faculty members are expected to serve as an advisor to a group of 8-12 students and to participate in the campus and residential life programs as assigned. The successful candidate will have the ability to engage and embrace the active lifestyle and responsibilities of boarding school life.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES:

Teaching

- Teach 4 sections each semester. Class assignments are based on disciplinary expertise, interest, and the needs of the involved departments each semester; all faculty are expected to be able to teach at the Basic, Standard, and Accelerated levels.
- Prepare syllabi and daily lesson plans for above.
- Assess and provide evaluation information back to students in a timely manner according to the school calendar.
- Communicate with case managers for students in the special services program as mandated by IEPs and 504 plans, and as needed for the best outcomes for students in the program.
- Be available daily during the conference period time at the end of the school day and require students to attend who need to make up work or who need extra assistance.
- Maintain communication with parents/guardians as needed throughout the school year, including up to four parents' afternoons/nights during the school year, and for one resident parents' weekend in the fall semester.

- Maintain classroom decorum to Academy standards, including recognizing dress code violations, with the support of department chairs and deans.
- Work collaboratively with colleagues within the department and throughout the school.

Other

- Serve as an advisor to a group of 8 -12 students during their four-year tenure at the Academy, including morning attendance and weekly advisory periods.
- Participate in the resident life program as assigned. Resident Life duties may include additional compensation or benefits, depending on the position. Specific assignments take into account faculty interest and lifestyle constraints as well as current school needs, and may include a position on regular dorm staff, after-school supervision of academic, athletic, or recreational activities, and serving as chaperones for student trips or events approximately three times per academic year.

- Attend assigned monthly meetings for all faculty, department, advisory class, and ad hoc committees. Time for department, advisory class, and ad hoc committees is generally allocated during the regular school day.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

REQUIRED SKILLS AND ABILITIES:

- Be committed to the idea of diversity in the classroom, such as the creation of a diverse and varied reading list, and the acknowledgment and acceptance of our students' diversity of culture, gender, sexuality, as well as their varied, economic, and educational backgrounds.
- Be collaborative and open to the idea of team-teaching and/or working regularly with peers.
- Be skilled in teaching contemporary forms of communications such as video creation; podcasts and audio recording, and oral and visual presentation.
- Have high degree of competence with contemporary educational technologies such as electronic gradebooks, digital whiteboards, and the google education suite or be willing to learn.
- Help students navigate digital and non-digital information.
- Teach critical thinking skills and original idea generation.
- Be creative and encourage creativity and out-of-the box thinking in our students.
- Be excited to work one-on-one with our students outside of the classroom using technology when appropriate.
- Have flexibility to work occasional evenings and weekends for campus life events.
- Demonstrate character and ability to serve as a mentor and role model for young people.

EDUCATION/EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor's Degree required; masters preferred.

- At least four plus years of teaching experience in content area.
- Boarding school experience is a plus.
