

POSITION DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE: English / Humanities Teacher

DATE: 2025-2026

DEPARTMENT: English Department

REPORTS TO: English Department Chair, Dean of Faculty, Assistant Head for Academic & Student Life, Headmaster, and Headmaster's Executive Administrative Assistant

JOB SUMMARY:

St. Johnsbury Academy seeks a dynamic, creative, and innovative English/Humanities teacher. Responsibilities include teaching up to four sections of English each semester. In addition to teaching responsibilities, full-time faculty members are expected to serve as an advisor to a group of 8-12 students during their four-year tenure at the Academy and to participate in campus and residential life programs as assigned.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES:

Teaching

- Teach up to 4 sections each semester. Class assignments are based on disciplinary expertise, interest, and the needs of the involved departments each semester; all faculty are expected to be able to teach at the Basic, Standard, and Accelerated levels.
- Prepare syllabi and daily lesson plans for above.
- Assess and provide evaluation information back to students in a timely manner according to the school calendar.
- Communicate with case managers for students in the special services program, as mandated by IEPs and 504 plans, and as needed to ensure the best outcomes for students in the program.
- Be available daily during the conference period at the end of the school day and require students who need to make up work or extra assistance to attend.
- Maintain communication with parents as needed throughout the school year, including up to 4 parents' afternoons/nights and one resident parents' weekend in the fall semester.
- Maintain classroom decorum in accordance with Academy standards, including recognizing dress code violations, with the support of department chairs and deans.
- Work collaboratively with colleagues within the department and throughout the school.

Other

- Serve as an advisor to a group of 8 -12 students during their four-year tenure at the Academy, including morning attendance and weekly advisory periods.
- Participate in the resident life program as assigned. Resident Life duties may include additional compensation or benefits, depending on the position. Specific assignments may consider faculty interest and lifestyle constraints as well as current school needs. They may consist of a position on regular dorm staff, after-school supervision of academic, athletic, or recreational activities, and serving as chaperones for student trips or events.
- Attend assigned monthly meetings for all faculty, department, advisory class, and ad hoc committees. Time for department, advisory class, and ad hoc committees is generally allocated during the regular school day.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

REQUIRED SKILLS AND ABILITIES:

- Be committed to the idea of diversity in the classroom, such as the creation of a diverse and varied reading list, and the acknowledgment and acceptance of our students' diversity of culture, gender, sexuality, as well as their varied economic and educational backgrounds,
- Be collaborative and open to the idea of team-teaching and/or working regularly with peers,
- Be proficient in the teaching of writing and able to differentiate instruction to accommodate students at different stages of their writing development,

- Be skilled in teaching contemporary forms of communications such as video creation, podcasts, audio recording, and oral and visual presentation,
- High level of competence with contemporary educational technologies, including electronic gradebooks, digital whiteboards, and learning management systems,
- Help students navigate both digital and non-digital information and discern credible sources from those that are not,
- Teach close-reading skills and analysis of printed texts, video and films, audio and/or oral presentations,
- Teach critical thinking skills and original idea generation,
- Be creative and encourage creativity and out-of-the-box thinking in our students,
- Be excited to work one-on-one with our students outside of the classroom using technology when appropriate,
- Flexibility to work occasional evenings and weekends for campus life events,
- Demonstrate character and ability to serve as a mentor and role model for young people.

EDUCATION/EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor's Degree required; master's preferred.
